

Woman

Woman fight for your peace, your voice, your being, your soul, your spirit

ℒ

Woman with life and energy don't stop being a woman

Woman with voice, woman with goals and dreams

Fight for your dreams with strength and pride, against everything if it's necessary

With faith and with love for your own being because as a woman we are very valuable

Doesn't matter the age, those that really love you will support your ideas and feelings, will follow you

Those that don't, for greed, will try to destroy you,

Don't let the physical or psychological abuse to stop you

If you are disable, fight for your rights

Fight for your being, for your inner peace in life,

Dreams and individuality tell you can get it,

Because you are so valuable and you are so important

Always with your forehead up looking towards the front, the future with pride and dignity

Woman I ask of you to protect together ℒ respect those, the weak ones,

The children and the elderly people;

So this way the upcoming generations learn to respect by example and

Take care of the human beings and living creatures of the earth, to protect the weak

Together let's make an effort not to lose our beautiful Mexican culture

What it is to be a lady and what is to be a gentlemen

At home and outside, in society

To live in harmony, at peace.
